NATIONAL 2018 Etiquette Week 8

National Association of Urban Etiquette Professionals

What is National Etiquette Week?

Each year during the full second week of May etiquette experts and protocol officers nationwide invite everyone to treat one another with more kindness and civility in recognition of National Etiquette Week.

Founded in 1997 by children's etiquette expert, Sandra Morisset – National Etiquette Week has become a national movement to encourage a more civil society.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF URBAN ETIQUETTE PROFESSIONALS

NAUEP is the premier etiquette association in the nation providing etiquette workshops – camps and conferences for urban youth. Founded in 2010 by Trenette Wilson – Lady T – NAUEP has certified 200 etiquette and debutante instructors and provides more than 1000 etiquette workshops yearly in underserved communities.
